About Us

Since 1972, Advancing Justice - Asian Law Caucus has been at the frontlines of justice. Our mission is to promote, advance, and represent the legal and civil rights of Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) communities. We strive to uplift the most vulnerable communities through a multifaceted approach, combining direct legal services, impact litigation, community organizing, and policy advocacy. We envision a society where everyone has dignity and access to justice, regardless of race, gender, sexual orientation, immigration status, and language ability. Advancing Justice - Asian Law Caucus is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit in San Francisco.

What We Do

ASPIRE – We formed the first pan-Asian, undocumented youth group in the country that seeks to empower undocumented Asian Pacific Islander youth and young adults.

Criminal Justice Reform - We challenge entanglement of local police in immigration enforcement and file lawsuits against police misconduct.

Housing Rights - We provide legal counseling and representation to tenants facing evictions and unlawful actions by landlords in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Immigrant Rights - We provide legal services related to detention and deportation defense, family unification, and citizenship.

National Security & Civil Rights - We protect the civil rights of individuals and communities unjustly impacted by overbroad national security policies by combating racial and religious profiling and intrusions into privacy rights with a particular focus on Arab, Middle Eastern, Muslim, and South Asian (AMEMSA) communities.

Workers' Rights – We provide legal counseling, policy advocacy, direct services and impact litigation for low-income immigrant workers on a wide range of workplace issues and partner regularly with worker centers.

Voting Rights – We work to expand and protect the voting rights of immigrant communities to ensure full participation of all eligible voters in the electoral process.
