Dear Voters,

Do you vote in more than one language?

You can vote in multiple languages on election day. Please see below for information on how to request a language-translation at your polling location and other voting information.

If you need assistance, please call the voter hotline.

Voting Language Assistance is Available in many languages.

The hotline numbers are:

- 888-687-8683 – for non-English speakers
- 888-274-8683 – for Vietnamese, Korean, Bangla, Hindi, and Tagalog
- 888-839-8682 – for Vietnamese, Mandarin, Cantonese, and other languages

See below for more information.

YOUR VOTING RIGHTS

Your rights to vote in California are protected by law. The California Constitution and laws provide that voters have the right to vote in any county they chose, regardless of where they live.

If you are not registered, you can register to vote on election day. To do so, you must be a United States citizen, at least 18 years old, and not a member of the California Legislature. If you are a member of the military stationed outside California, you may register in person at your polling place.

All registered voters can vote in person at their polling place on election day. Voters can also vote by mail in any county where they are registered. To vote by mail, you must register at least 21 days before the election.

If you are unsure of your voting rights, you can check them online at the California Secretary of State’s website.

Thank you for your service.
